

Sincerity

vs Hypocrisy

Being as genuine on the inside as we appear on the outside.

I choose to:

- Be all that I can be
- Take responsibility for my own actions
- Respect others' opinions
- Always mean what I say
- Not take advantage of other people

Our sincerity will be quickly revealed as we undergo fiery trials.

Sincerity in the home includes:

- * Treating family members the same at home as in public.
- * Family members discussing people as if those people were present.
- * Upholding the same standards in the home that are represented to others.

Benefits of Sincerity

HONOUR – to the same degree that people despise hypocrites, they honour those who are sincere and have integrity.

TRUST – when people see our motives are clear and we desire to do right, they will put greater trust in what we think and say.

Our walk talks and our talk talks, but our walk talks louder than our talk talks!

Personal Evaluation

How sincere are you?

Are you the same on the outside as you are on the inside?

Do you judge others for things that you are guilty of?

Do people see the light of Christ through your strengths and weaknesses?

Do you obey outwardly, yet inwardly resist instruction?

A beehive is made up of thousands of members, all with special jobs to do. In order to ensure the smooth running of the hive, sincere communication through body language and uniquely formulated scents help bees convey reliable messages describing danger, work assignments and food sources.
