

VIRTUE vs Weakness

Demonstrating honesty and integrity in my life by doing what is right.

I choose to:

- Do what is right and encourage others to do the same.
- Guard my eyes, ears, words and thoughts.
- Learn to stand alone.
- Treat others as I would want them to treat me.
- Avoid those things that might pollute my mind or body.

Virtue is like a lighthouse.
The greater the storms and the darker the night, the more its power and brightness are valued.

Virtue in the home includes:

- * Parents teaching children to make wise choices about time, friends, music and clothes.
- * Family members dressing modestly inside and outside the home.
- * Choosing to listen and watch that which is uplifting and of good influence.

Benefits of Virtue:

TRUST – as we consistently demonstrate integrity, honesty and make good choices, people will trust us with greater responsibility.

DEPENDABLE WITNESS – steadfast integrity will cause us to shine like stars in the universe as we hold out the Word of life to many.

Add to your faith, virtue and to virtue, knowledge... 2 Peter 1:5

The pure white plumage of the Great Egret stands out against the swampy wilderness of Top End Australia. To keep itself pure, an egret must go through rigorous preening. They must see the dirt, act quickly to rub it off and then make effort to keep clean.

Personal Evaluation

How virtuous are you?

Do others ask you for counsel for the problems they are facing in their lives?

Do others want to follow your example in living out the Christian life?

Do you thank God for times of suffering and rejoice in them?

Do others tell you how you have helped them in their walk with the Lord.
